Please make sure you set the Current Grade to whatever grading period it is. Also, once grades are stored or until they are stored, you change the source data to historical. If it's the current grading term, it's set to gradebook. If you have any questions let me know. If you don't mark the current Grade at the bottom parents won't see what their child's current grades are. They will continue to only see what quarter you have marked.
